ITINERARY

Naruto Whirlpools Day Trip

A day that six travelers (family plus three guests from abroad) all enjoyed.

When	Group	Getting around	Per person
A Saturday in Sept.	6 travelers	One 7-seat car	about $55–60

The day at a glance

12:10 Nishi-Akashi → 13:25 Lunch on Awaji → 15:20 Naruto Park → 16:15 Whirlpool boat → 16:50 Uzu-no-Michi → 20:30 Back

How everyone's wishes shaped the plan

Traveler	Survey answer	In the plan
A (60s)	Not too much walking; worried about seasickness	✓ Mostly by car, with time to take motion-sickness medicine before boarding
B (20s)	Wants dramatic scenery	✓ Boat and glass-floor walkway timed to the whirlpools' best hours (about 2 hours around high tide, 18:02)
C (20s)	A relaxed lunch	✓ 55 minutes for lunch, at food halls with no reservation needed
3 guests from abroad	Something new, not the usual cities	✓ Built around walking above the sea and an underwater-view boat
Everyone	Make the train home	✓ Traffic buffer so the group catches their chosen train after 9 pm

Three things to remember

⏰ Don't-miss times

- 14:30 Leave Awaji (14:40 at the latest)
- 16:05 Boat check-in closes
- 17:30 Last entry to the walkway

🎒 Bring

- Motion-sickness medicine (follow the label)
- Comfortable shoes and a light jacket (windy on the boat)
- Rain gear and some cash
